

WORKSHEET: SYMBOL READING

NAME:

DATE:

All readings are designed to help you understand yourself better and find more freedom, creativity and inspiration in all areas of your life. Use this worksheet to take notes during your reading and reflect on the information afterwards.

Remember that all information is symbolic and metaphorical, and should never be used to replace medical or psychological care. Take only what resonates as true to you and leave the rest. You will find questions for reflection at the end of this worksheet.

HIDDEN GEMS WITHIN

This reading is about understanding your natural inner resources – your natural talents and your unique strengths and perspectives, especially those that might be a little more hidden to you.

Each of these Namibian gemstones will represent a life theme within which you may have natural talents, and will show us how you might boost them to live a more fulfilling life.

GEMSTONE HELPERS

Gemstones have the capacity to hold and amplify certain frequencies associated with certain states of your energy system. A gemstone will not beam good energy toward you by itself, but it will amplify the energy you give it when aligned with its natural capacity. Your intentional use of your energy with the gemstone is what makes it effective.

If any of these gemstones and crystals spoke to you, or if there is one of your natural talents you would like to strengthen and realize more fully to help you in your life, consider getting yourself this gemstone and working intentionally with it to help you build that energy within you.
